1. INTRODUCTION

Section 32 of the Constitution of South Africa provides that everyone has the right to access any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, except where the Act expressly provides that the information must not or need not be released.

It also prescribes that national legislation must be enacted to give effect to this right, and may provide for reasonable measures to alleviate the administrative and financial burden on the State. In the event that a request is made the said person/body must release such information speedily, inexpensively and effortlessly as reasonably possible.

2. PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

The purpose of the manual in general is to promote transparency, accountability and effective governance. In more simple terms, granting the people of South Africa access to information enables them to exercise their rights as enshrined in the Constitution.

5. WHO MAY REQUEST INFORMATION

In terms of section 50(1) of the act any person may request information from Oneplan Underwriting Managers (Pty) Ltd and Oneplan Brokers (Pty) Ltd (herein collectively referred to as "oneplan") provided that:

- The record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. That the person complies with the procedural requirements in this Act relating to a request for access to that record.
- Access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal.

There are two types of Requesters :

Personal Requester

Personal Requester is a Requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the Requester. Oneplan will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the Requester's personal information.

Other Requester

This Requester (other than a personal Requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties. However, Oneplan is not obliged to voluntarily grant access. The Requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements for access in terms of the Act.

5. RECORDS THAT MAY BE REQUESTED

The following records may be requested:

Personnel Records

Records include but are not limited to the following:

- Personnel records provided to Oneplan by their personnel
- Records a third party has provided about any of Oneplan's personnel

Other Party Records

Records include but are not limited to suppliers and service providers. .

6 ACCESS PROCEDURE

The request must be received in the prescribed format by completing the attached form marked Annexure A. In terms of the Act, the Requester must provide the following information:

- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the Requestor;
- Sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the record(s) requested;
- The form of access required;
- The Requestor's postal address or fax number;
- Identification of the right sought to be exercised or protected;
- An explanation on why the record is required to exercise or protect that right;
- The manner in which the Requestor wishes to be informed of the decision on the request, if in a manner in addition to written notification; and
- If the request is made on behalf of a person, the submission of proof of the capacity in which the Requestor makes the request, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- If the Requestor is acting on behalf of another person, the capacity in what the Requestor is acting as well as proof of thereof must be attached.

Oneplan will process the request within thirty (30) days, unless the Requestor has stated special reasons which would satisfy the Information Officer that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with. The Requester shall be informed whether access has been granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the Requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, he must state the manner and the particulars so required.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.

The Requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

7 PRESCRIBED FEES

In terms of the Act, a prescribed fee may be levied for any requests to access of any records. The request fee is not applicable to personal requests i.e. records containing personal information that concerns the Requestor.

An access fee is payable by all Requestors when access is granted. The purpose of this fee is to reimburse the private body for the costs involved in searching for the record and preparing it for delivery to the Requestor.

Prescribed fees for public bodies can be accessed on www.justice.gov.za/PAIA

8. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DOES NOT EXIST

In the event that a record is requested and could not be found section 55 of the act stipulates that, if:

- all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested; and
- there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record;
- is in the private body's possession but cannot be found; or
- does not exist;

The head of a private body must, by way of affidavit or affirmation, notify the Requester that it is not possible to give access to that record.

If the document cannot be found it is deemed to be a refusal of the request. If, however, the record is later found, the Requestor must be given access if the request would otherwise have been granted.

9. DECISION ON REQUEST

On receipt of a request, the private body to which the request is made must decide in accordance with the Act to grant the request and notify the Requestor of the decision and must state:

- the access fee (if any) to be paid upon access
- the form in which access will be given; and
- that the Requester may lodge an application with a court against the access fee

Should the request be refused the private body in question must:

- State adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of this Act relied on.
- Exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the record; and
- State that the Requester may lodge an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging the application.
